

PROJECT ACCESS: Accessing Health Care for the Uninsured

Program	New Mexico Medical Insurance Pool	New Mexico Health Insurance Alliance	Santa Fe Project Access	Santa Fe County Indigent Fund
Description of Program	Comprehensive health insurance through subsidized program—PPO plan with choice of deductible amount.	Comprehensive health insurance through state-subsidized program—several plans to choose from. For groups of 2-50 employees or individuals meeting criteria.	Short-term help for insured people with medical problem. Only for six months.	Helps with some medical bills for people without insurance. Covers ambulance, inpatient, hospital, non-profit primary care, psychiatric, alcohol or drug abuse.
Eligibility	For people with certain medical conditions or who have been denied health insurance due to pre-existing condition, whose current or quoted rates are higher than qualifying rates, or who are losing their group coverage.	For individuals—Had other coverage, not more than 63 days lapse, had 18 mos. of other coverage.	Santa Fe County resident Must have income below 200% of poverty-call to see if you qualify.	Santa Fe County resident for at least 3 months. Must meet income and asset criteria. If you have a medical bill and no insurance, call to see if you qualify.
Cost	Depends on deductible and age. Premium reductions available for people under 400% of poverty.	Depends—but usually about 9% higher than premiums for similar coverage in commercial market.	No cost.	No cost. Does not cover private physician or for profit services.
Contact Information	1-866-622-4711 www.nmmip.com	1-800-204-4700 www.nmhia.com	SFPA 505-795-2356 robinhunn@comcast.net	Santa Fe Co. Human Services 505-992-9850

Santa Fe Project Access can help you find available health coverage programs.
There are other programs that might help you or your children.

Project Access is a network of volunteer health care providers who have pledged their services in a commitment to help people without health insurance.

In memory of SFPA patient Zach Rogers

PROJECT ACCESS: Accessing Health Care for the Uninsured

So call us today if you don't have health insurance. (505) 795-2356

*Project Access is a network of volunteer health care providers who have pledged their services in a commitment to help people without health insurance.
In memory of SFPA patient Zach Rogers*